

Assuring our mission will Live On

Live On, the Gulf Coast Synod endowment, is our collective effort to ensure that future pastors will leave the seminary free of additional student debt, campus pastors will be present for college students wrestling with big questions, and new faith communities will have opportunities to grow.

The endowment has grown to $2.7 million through the generosity of congregations and faithful Lutherans. It is invested in ELCA Foundation Pooled Trust Fund A to provide annual income to support ministry. Since inception, Live On has made grants totaling approximately $900,000.

“The Live On scholarships provided to Gulf Coast Synod seminary students are proof of God's provision for me. Knowing that I can complete seminary without the burden of more financial debt is confirmation that God is at work.”
